

REQUEST FOR SPEAKERS

CREW-Miami is accepting Speaker Applications and Topic Proposals for its program series to take place in Miami. Proposals must be submitted via this application process, to the Programs Director c/o Maria Bixby at administrator@cor-events.com. The Speakers should be able to offer advice and anecdotes that convey first-hand application and experience on the topics they address.

- Priority will be given to those who provide fresh, inventive substance and style to their content and delivery. Those who submit complete topics and talking points will receive priority. Please have testimonials and/or session evaluations from past speaking events ready.
- Speakers will receive complimentary registration to the CREW-Miami program for themselves and a guest. No compensation will be given for travel or other expenses.
- All speakers must follow CREW's "no selling from the stage" policy.
- Please specify whether you prefer to serve as a moderator, a panelist, or are open to either role.

Thank you for your response. CREW-Miami will contact only those whose topics have been approved or selected. Programs are planned months in advance, and we will give you as much lead-time as possible.

Proposals should not be considered approved until you have received confirmation from CREW-Miami.

PLEASE SUBMIT COMPLETED PROPOSAL TO:
CREW-Miami Programs Director c/o Maria Bixby at administrator@cor-events.com

ABOUT CREW-MIAMI

CREW-Miami was founded in 1987 by a pioneer group of professional women involved in different aspects of the commercial real estate industry.

It was established to provide a support network in which they could easily collaborate. Since its inception, CREW-Miami's membership has expanded steadily to more than 200 professionals representing all fields of commercial real estate. It is a premier organization that provides its members with quality educational and networking events while promoting business opportunities.
