CREW Miami will host Miami: A Role Model for Resiliency on Wednesday, Sept. 12.

The private and public sectors are looking for ways to build a more resilient community as South Florida deals with climate change, rising sea levels, and hurricane susceptibility. CREW Miami's September luncheon will feature a panel of experts discussing urban planning, infrastructure investments, and a host of potential solutions with the goal of transforming Miami into a role model for resiliency. Akerman managing partner Neisen Kasdin will moderate a panel that includes:

- Miami Mayor Francis Suarez
- Miami Worldcenter Associates Managing Principal Nitin Motwani
- Zyscovich Architects founder and CEO Bernard Zyscovich
- Frances Colon of Jaspri Consulting, a member of the City of Miami Sea Level Rise Committee

The event will take place 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. at the Four Seasons Hotel, 1435 Brickell Ave. in Miami. The cost to attend is $50 for members, $65 in advance or $75 for walk-ins. To register, visit www.crewmiami.org.
